Oysters and Politics-How the New Biraive Law is Working-The People

rounds of the Virginia papers:

"The First Regiment of Virginia Cavalry will hardly take any part in the inauguration procession. An effort has been made to get the command to act as an escort to Governor McKinney, but it has met with very little encouragement from the officers of the regiment."

This paragraph is calculated to do injustice to the Governor. When Governor McKinney's attention was called to it yesterday he said it was the first intimation he had had that any effort of the kind was being made, and he was unaware of any authority for the statement.

COLONEL WICKHAM ENDORSED.

COLONEL WICKHAM ENDORSED. The facts are that when Colonel Wick. Amm made application for the position for his regiment of special eccort to Mr. Cleveland Governor McKinney strongly endorsed the application. When, however, he was shown the correspondence that ensued between the Colonel and General McMahon he heartily approved the former's position, and even told Colonel Wickham that since the profiler had been noted in the Disparcial died at the residence of her husband, No. 1717 Buchanan street, yesterday at noon. The Governor said further touching this The Governor said further touching this matter that Captain Euker came to him and very courteously offered the services of his troop, the Stuart Horse Guard, as a gabernatorial escort, but he declined. There was very little probability of his being present at the inaugural ceremonics, but even it he should go be would attend simply as a private citizen and not in his official capacity.

OFSTERS AND POLITICS.

Dr. Wilkins, of Northampton, the State Fish Commissioner, was at the Capitol vesterday. When asked how the new oyster law was working he said the people were becoming reconciled to it and even coming to think that it would be a source of revenue to the State and beneficial to their section and the rest of the Commonwealth. Referring to the gubernatorial fight, he said Colonel O'Ferrall was most prominently talked of across the bay.

Major Baker P. Lee, of Hampton, was also seen at the Capitol. Major Lee is stopping at the Exchange and will be in the city for several days. When questioned about the oyster law he expressed the opinion that the people were becoming more satisfied with it. As regards politics he said there was down his way very little talk on the subject.

Among other visitors to the Capitol were H. C. Joyner, Treasurer of Amberst, and C. L. Bocock, Treasurer of Charles City. OTSTERS AND POLITICS.

AT ST. PETER'S CATHEDRAL. ner of the Sacred-Heart League.

Commencing to morrow, which will be the first Friday in the month, the services at St. Peter's Cathedral will be changed and will be as follows:

Mass at 6 o'clock A. M.; exposition of blessed sacrament from 6 to 7:30 A. M.; benediction of blessed sacrament and prayers at 8 P. M.

At each service for the first time the beautiful hand-painted banner of the League of the Sacred Heart, which is the handiwork entirely of Mrs. Andrew Pizzini, who presented it and the nickel stand on which it rests to the league, will be displayed. It has been pronounced a handseme and artistic piece of work, well worthy of being closely inspected.

The shape chosen is a shield, as an emblem of victory over self, when we "in all things put on the shield of faith."

The colors used are: 1. White, symbolic of the purity of intention, the faith and joy that should be the ground-work of all labors for the learne. 2. Red. the color of divine love and spirit of wisdom, 3. Green, the color of hope and of victory. 4. Violet, signifying the suffering we must expect, and also penance, truth, and love, 5. Gold, symbolic of God's goodness.

The Divine Heart, the centre of all our devotion, sheds its rays of love upon our life of sin and suffering and makes all our actions blossom into beautiful and fragrant prayers. The prayer "Adveniat Regum Tuum" is in letters of gold above the heart to show what power our motto has with the Sacred Heart.

The wreath of pession flowers symbolizes the sorrows and passion of our Divine Lord, and is surmounted by a ribbon bearing the legend "His Banner Over Me Is Love" in letters of gold, to show that above all we are bound together by the golden gift of love. The gold cross surmounts the whole as an incentive to constancy in the work of the League of the nstancy in the work of the League of the

Williams has been convicted of stealing

Williams has been convicted of stealing before, and recently several charges of largeny were entered against him. He bragged that he would never be taken alive, and so Officer Folkes was derected to attire himself in citizen's clothes and catch him unawares. The policeman, apprehending trouble, got two citizens to accompany him to the bouse, which is on Twenty-eighth street between S and I. As soon as Folkes opened the door Wilhams sprang at him and the two men clutched cach other and a vigorous scuffle ensued. The officer did not let go, for he noticed that the prisoner was trying to get at an axe. In the course of the fight Williams bit off the end of the officer's foreinger, and the latter whacked his man on the head with the buttened of his pistol. The policeman succeeded in getting on the head with the butt-end of his pistol. The policeman succeeded in getting to a patrol-box and called the wagon, which arrived in nineteen minutes.

There are nine charges against the prisoner. During Christmas week some one entered the cattle-house of Messrs. John C. Brauer, Charles E. Brauer, and Samuel Braner and stole a calf from the first named and two sheep from each of the latter. On the same night a horse and some harness were stolen from Mr. George Bradley on Twenty-fifth street, while a wagon was taken from the yard of Mr. Samuel Liggon. The police have good reason to think that all these offences were committed by Wilmans, and he will answer the charges before the Police Court this morning.

Nothing Has Yet Been Decided.

The Allen & Ginter people have not yet determined what they will do in the matter of rebuilding that portion of their piant destroyed by fire on January 17th.

The company is working day and night in order to eatch up with its orders, which

New machinery continues to arrive, and is being put up ready for use.

Nearly all of the old employees have been given work, and those who are still out, it is thought, will be given employment within the next few days. The night work will probably be discontinued about the 10th instant.

The Allen & Ginter Branch have an option on a part of the second floor of the Chamber of Commerce building, which they propose to use as offices. A part of the third floor has been rented by Mr. John B. West for offices of the Equitable Life-Insurance Company.

The Sad Story of Their Trials CHANTS MURDERED BY NEGROES. and Misfortunes.

GRAHAM, VA., February 1.—Two country merchants named Alexander Batcliff and Only Good News at Present to Tell About Them.

What Their Parents Have to Say About the Matter.

When the lovely young daughter of the noted scholar, Professor J. M. Elwood, of 43 Cornelia street, Brooklyn, N. Y., fell ill with St. Vitus dance, it was a great and serious shock to her distinguished father and the young girl's many acquaintances and friends. Many prominent physicians treated her case in vain, until her parents were almost in despair of a cure.

She was quickly and suddenly cured, however, and is perfectly well at present. The Professor, on being interviewed expressed his great joy at his daughter's restoration to health, and spoke strongly in regard to the wonderful remedy which had wrought so sudden a cure.

"It affords me greatest pleasure," he said, "to state that my daughter, who was a sufferer from St. Vitus dance and who was treated for it by prominent physicians in Brooklyn without result, was completely cured by using two bottles of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy."

Another little girl's case, which excited much sympathy and a great amount of interest and rejoicing when at last she was cured of her serious nervous affection and restored to perfect health, was that of little liney Bemis, daughter of C. H. Bemis, Esq., a prominent and well-known citizen of Granby, Mass.

"My little girl," answered Mr. Bemis when questioned, "had been taking medicine for a severe nervous trouble for nearly two years, receiving no benefit. I then bought a bottle of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and her recovery by its use has been remarkable. Others of the family have also received benefit from its use."

There is no mistaking the fact that this is the true children's medicine, and that it occurries in the household the position of the best and surest family remedy. It is perfectly harmless to give to nervous restless, sleepless, and sick infants and children of any age, being made from pure and health-giving vegetable meditines.

ANTED, THE PUBLIC TO

NOW that we have fought the battle and won the vectory. It is now fresh in the memory of the people of Richmond that we have experienced one of the collect spells known to the oldest inhabitants. But, notwithstanding, not a customer of ours has failed to get his of her wants supplied, though we were not able, on acount of the terrible rush of business on us, to deliver our orders as promptly as we desired, and hope that those of our friends whose orders were not delivered as promptly as they desired will excuse us, as we did the very best we could under the circumstances. We still have on hand a full supply of CoAL and Wood of all kinds and of the best quality, and will be pleased to fill fue orders of any who are in want of good fuel. We would also say to those who placed their orders elsewhere last summer for their winter supply and have not been fairly dealt with, place your WANTED, BRIGHT, YOUNG LADIES TO CANVASS IN THE CITY.
Salary paid. Address HOME, Post-Office Box
